

Names

By Mark Shanahan & Meredith Goldstein
Globe Staff / July 9, 2010

The Boston Globe

A moving night

Avery Klein-Cloud, the subject of the documentary “Off and Running,” and Daniel Bernard Roumain, the film’s composer, were at a screening of the movie last night at the Coolidge Corner Theatre. The film, which was put on by the Roxbury Film Festival and the Boston Jewish Film Festival, is about a Jewish lesbian couple and their adopted daughter who goes off to find her birth mother. The two planned to stick around for audience questions.